The Ring of Steel is a repertory theatre company affiliated with the University of Michigan. The Ring has members ranging from 11 years of age to 58. We perform at RenFaires, Sci/Fi & Fantasy Conventions, Haunted Houses, parties and just about any other place that gives us a chance to show off! We also teach workshops, offer demonstrations & lectures, and choreograph the action scenes and stunts for over a dozen productions a year. Fight Director for the Michigan Opera Theater, our maestro, holds a national fencing title, multiple blackbelts and has over 30 years experience in theatrical combat and stunt work. Members may train in many different styles from our armory of over a thousand weapons and, with practice, learn stunts ranging from high falls to fire.

No experience necessary!
